HONORS TO GEN, TORBERT, His Body Received and Attended Through the City by a Military Escort. The steamer Western Texas, that was to have arrived at Mallory's dock at the foot of Maiden lane, on Tuesday, with Major-Gen. A. T. A. Torbert's body on board, did not reach her pier until 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The delay was caused by adverse winds. The body was to have been received by the Old Guard and escorted to the Governor's room in the City Hall, and there watched all night by a guard of honor. As it was, only Secretary J. F. Swords of the committee of five and a platoon of twenty members of the steamboat squad of police under Capt. Gastlin were on the pier when the Western Texas came up the East River. The steamer's flags were at half-mast. Capt. Isaac Hine, commanding the Western Texas, received from Mr. Swords the papers from the Board of Health allowing the removal of the body, and a dozen sailors quickly removed the plain pine box containing the body from the hold of the steamer to a hearse in waiting. On the coffin were roses and ever-Pla. The body was taken to Jacksonville from st. Augustine on Wednesday last by rail. From the railroad depot it was carried with a military secort to the armory of the First Regiment Florida Artillery. In the armory the body was surrounded day and night by a guard of honor. Shortly before the Western Texas sailed the body was taken to the steamer, followed by a

Their bearskin-tuffed caps, skin-tight white trousers, top boots, and clanking spurs made them conspicuous. Three sergeants and three corporais of the First United States Artillory were also present. ## REINHARDT TO BE HANGED,

The Court of Appenls' Decision Against the Staten Island Murgerer.

District Attorney Croak of Richmond County, on Tuesday evening, received a telegram from Albany, announcing that the Court of Appeals had affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Edward Reinhardt, who was convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of his wife. Mary Ann Reinhardt, whose body was found buried in a barrel near Silver Lake in July, 1878. Mr. Croak at once sent a messenger to the county jail, at once sent a messenger to the county jail, at lichmond, to inform Sheriff Conner of the decision, so that the Sheriff could take the necessary precaution to prevent Reinhardt from executing his threat made some time ago to the effect that if the court of last resort decided against him he would kill himself rather than die on the gallows.

Special Keeper John Vaughn, who has watched Reinhardt during his long imprisonment, broke the news to the condemned man. Vaughn said: "Eddie, you must at last prepare to the; the Court of Appeals has affirmed your to die; the Court of Appeals has affirmed your to die; the Court of Appeals has affirmed your conviction."

Remnardt, upon receiving the announcement, tried hard to keep up the remarkable self-command which he has shown since the day he was arrested, but it was plainly seen in his face that he fully realized his terrible position. Most of the time yesterday he lay on his cot in the narrow cell. He requested to be left to himself, and no visitors were allowed to see him. A constant watch will be kept over the condemned man. When the Governor refused to interfere in the cases of Cox and Balbo, Roinlardt said that if the Court of Appeals decided against him his last chance would be gone. District Attorney Croak said yesterday that he will move for a resenteace of Reinhardt in the Riemmond County Greuit Court and Court of Over and Terminer, which convenes at Richmond on Oct. 11.

EGGING A PREACHER,

An Offence for which Young Davison was Sent to the House of Refuge.

The Rev. Frederick C. M. Heinie, pastor of the German Evangelical Trinity Church at 732 Ninth avenue, was a complainant yesterday in the Yorkville Police Court. He is a smoothfaced man, and he wore clerical garments and faced man, and he wore clerical garments and gold-bowed spectacles. He complained that Joseph Davison, 15 years old, had thrown rotten eggs at him. The clersyman has before appeared in the same court to make complaint against boys in the neighborhood of the church, whom he accused of having thrown stones and decayed vegetables at him.

Young Davison had been arrested by Detective Mullen of Inspector Thorne's staff. In court he denied that he had pelled the pastor with rotten eggs or other missiles, and said that he did not know the preacher. But he had heard, he said, that there was a clergyman in the neighborhood whom the boys were going to slone because he had interfered with them.

Justice Bixby committed the young prisoner to the House of Refuge.

The registration in Brooklyn on Tuesday, which was the first registrationday this year, was larger than ever before on a first day. The names of 48,082 voters were placed upon the books. On the first day in 1976 the registration was 26,080, and the first day's registration last year was 25,185. As the total vote of frocking is a satimated at 113,388, Tuesday's registration amounted to over one-third of it. The interest is taken as indicating that a larger Democratic vote will be out in Brooklyn than ever I elore and that Hancock will get at least 20,000 majority in Kings County.

On the 16th inst, the brig Rozella Smith, which arrived in this port yesterday from Aberdeen, was struck by lightning. The fore and maintenant and its struck by lightning. The fore and maintonmast and jib-boom were carried away and her sails were lost.

BASE BALL IN NEW YORK, The Home Tenm Defent the Nationals of

Washington in Five Innings. Yesterday was an eventful day in the history of professional base ball playing in the metropolis, inasmuch as it was the occasion of the playing of the inaugural professional match in this city, the new ball field on the polo grounds being the first enclosed base ball ground New York city has ever had. The promise of an exciting contest between two strong teams, and the very propilious weather for the match, led to the gathering of between two and three thou-sand people at the polo grounds. The competing teams were the Nationals of Washington and the new Metropolitan Club team. The latter were on the field ready for play at the appointed time but it was nearly an hour later before the Nationals reached the grounds, they having been delayed on their way from Phila-delphia, where they had defeated the new Athletic nine the day before by 7 to 1. The crowd became impatient before the visitors arrived. A picked nine was playing with the Metropol-itans, and a portion of the assemblage were gat-ting their money back at the gate when the Na-tionals entered. Then there was a rush back to the field. The grand stand was crowded, and quite a number of ladies occupied seats to the field. The grand siand was crowded, and quits a number of ladies occupied seats there.

The contest began at 4:20 P. M., with the Metropolitans at the bat. Brady opened the game with a long hit to centre field, on which he reached third base, an error by Smiley at second letting him in before the side was out. As the Nationals were put out in succession, the New Yorkers took the lead with the score of 1 to 0. In the second innings a bad throw and wild pitching gave the New York team an unearned run, but this the Nationals offset with two runs on a single base hit, owing to a dropped fly ball and a wild throw. This left the score even at 2 to 2. In the next two innings neither side scored, the pitching being finely supported by both teams. In the fifth, however, Kennedy came to the rescue with a three-base bit, and, by Daly's single, a run was earned, a sacrifice hit afterward giving Daly his run. The Nationals were then blanked, and the score at the end of the flith innings stood at 4 to 2 in favor of New York. In the sixth innings, by a series of errors, the New Yorkers were allowed to add 4 runs to their score on two-base hits. The Nationals had scored one run, with two men out, when it became too dark for further play, and the game was called back to the fifth aven innings, with the score at 4 to 2 in favor of New York.

nims, with the score at 4 to 2 in favor of New York.

The catching on both sides was excellent, but Daiy did the most effective bitching, only three base hits being scored by the Nationals in their six innings, while the New Yorkers scored eight in their six innings. Fine running catches were made by Mansell and Morrissey, and good catches by Deasley and Brady, the latter making a splendid double play in the picked nine innings before the regular game began. Farrell also made two good catches. The weak point on the National side was at second base. To-day the second game takes place at 3 is P. M. The score of yesterday's match is as follows:

MATIONAL P. O. C.

Totals ..... 4 4 15 5 5 Totals ..... 2 2 15 3 7

A regular old-time muffin match was played at Chicago yesterday, a very lively ball result-lar in heavy hitting and plenty of runs and errors, as the appended score shows:

Closely contested games took place at Boston and Providence, the victors being the Boston and Worcester nines, as the scores below show. In Providence:

In Boston: In Cincinnati the Clevelands again won by the following acore:

Brothers has been released by the Troy Club, and Tobin has been taken back. Curren of the Athletics has been released. Harvard loses Winsor, Fessenden, Holden, and Shattuck from their nine now being organized for next season. Hutchinson, Parker, Camp, and Clark of the Yale team of 1880 will also be missed next season. Notwithstanding some talk to the contrary, Harvard will remain in the Intercollegiate Base Ball Association, and will play the usual series of games. usual series of games.

BURGLARS IN ORANGE.

Robbing the Residences of Samuel Lord and Mrs. J. C. Fuller.

Samuel Lord of the firm of Lord & Taylor of this city lives in Centre street, Orange, N. J. Between 8 and 9 o'clock on Tuesday evening the family were in the parlor. A few minutes after 9 o'clock one of the family went to the upper stories and found them all brilliantly lighted. In a few minutes it was ascertained that burglars had effected an entrance by climbing one of the front piazza posts and opening a window in the second story. They had stoien about $400 worth of property, and they seemed to have taken their time, as they had visited all the sleeping apartments. Among the articles stolen are a lady's gold watch on which was the monogram "M. A.," a gold watch bearing the monogram "M. A.," a gold watch bearing the monogram "S. L.," a pocket-book containing $17 in money, and a lot of silver spoons. Mr. Lord has effered a reward of $100 for the receivery of the property and the detection of the burglars.

The same men, it is believed, entered the residence of Mrs. J. C. Fuller in Centre street in the same manner, and stole a pair of valuable diamond earrings, a pair of only earrings, and a breastpin. Yesterday morning two pocketbooks were found on the lawn in front of Mr. Lord's residence. One belonged to Mrs. Fuller. In the other was a slip of paper on which was written "Mrs. M. E.
